From:	ehbarak <ehbarak1@gmail.com>
To:	Edward Temko <temkon@me.com>
CC:	Nili (Priell) Barak <nilipriell@gmail.com>
Date:	Fri, 3/18/2016 1:03:22 PM
Subject:	Re: from ned (further question on Ch 8)

Hi Ned
The raid (mine)on missiles happened on Oct. 20th.
Same day towards evening we started move south west. And the exchange with Egyptian tanks and later some infantry in Fayid queries.
Toward evening (still Oct. 20.) the APC was hit (probably infantry. I'll try to check). Six dead. Including the two Sniper officers. One of them Gidi, was now the APCs company commander.
So it was on the 20th night that I walked back to find them. I found the three who remained Alive, one wounded. They reported of the dead.
With Fayid airbase we had fire exchanges from afar.
Even on the 19th. And later on the 20th. But we never entered it.
This was done on the 22nd(?) by Sharon forces.it was there that Amitay Nahmani was killed and Amiram wounded.
Chita, Nehemia's brother was there as well as an Airforce officer to take over the base.
I met him in Fayid air base on the 27th or 28th, After cease fire. And he described it to me.
Best EB

Sent from my iPhone

> On 16 Mar 2016, at 11:50, Edward Temko wrote:
>
> Dear Ehud:
> In addition to the points in my earlier message (see below) can you clarify for me the timing of the Fayid airbase > operation you were involved in it. In the account as we have it, it happens soon after you leave the bridgehead, and > before the attack on the SAM sites. In Yasha Kedmi¡¯s account, if I am reading it correctly, it happens after the SAM > site attacks, possibly on the way to the Geneifa hills.
> Know you¡¯ve got other demands on your time while in Israel, but would be really good to tie up these points so that > I can complete Ch 8 and move on to Ch 9.
> Thanks
> Ned
>
>
>
>
>
>
>
> Hi. Am getting somewhat confused, having read the Yasha Kedmi memoir passages. He seems to say that when you went off on your > own to look for the soldiers from the missing APC, it was in fact the APC that carried the two sniper instructors, and that on your way there, > they radioed you to tell you they were all dead. It seems entirely possible Yasha has mis-remembered this. I doubt you would not remember > bringing back surviving soldiers along with you. But could you please confirm?

> Also, he seems to say that you had a brief fight at someplace called the Fayid quarries on 20 Oct (when the sniper instructors were killed), > presumably the same incident you refer to as taking place at Fayid airbase? In your account, the sniper instructors lost their lives during the initial effort to ¡°roll up¡± > the Third Army from north to south.
> Then I¡¯ll send you the draft of Ch 8 and get going on nine.
> Thanks
> Ned
>